CCVL Profiled in Front Page Star Tribune Business News

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., November 5, 2009 – Linnihan Foy Advertising (LFA), an award-winning, full-service advertising agency, congratulates Carlson Caspers, Vandenberg & Lindquist (CCVL), on making front-page headlines in the Minneapolis Star Tribune business section today.

CCVL, a leading intellectual property law firm in Minneapolis, was featured by Strib vet Dick Youngblood, in a profile recounting significant cases tried by the firm and their seasoned legal staff.

Comprised of award-winning attorneys with expertise in patent trial and appeals, CCVL strategically directs cases from initial opinion work through trial and appeal to protect and enforce the intellectual property interests of their clients.

LFA joined forces with CCVL over a year ago to help expand the firm's public relations initiatives, freshen their online presence and revamp their marketing collateral.
